PREFACE

The Metropolitan Public Defender's Office operates with a philosophy that government exists to serve people, and citizens should have the right to access records of work performed on their behalf. Public access to such records promotes transparency in government institutions, accountability of elected leaders and representatives, and a more informed public dialogue around important issues. At the same time, much of the work of the Metropolitan Public Defender's Office involves legal representation of individuals. As lawyers for those individuals, we are required by law, statute, and professional codes of ethics to maintain strict confidentiality of any and all information related to the representation of our clients. As such, any and all records related to the representation of a client of this Office are not public records; they are property of the client, and not subject to disclosure absent written consent of the client.

PUBLIC RECORDS POLICY

Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 10-7-503(g), the following Public Records Policy is hereby adopted by the Metropolitan Public Defender's Office to provide economical and efficient access to public records as provided under the Tennessee Public Records Act ("TPRA") in Tenn. Code Ann. § 10-7-501, et seq.

The TPRA provides that all state, county and municipal records shall, at all times during business hours be open for personal inspection by any citizen of this state, and those in charge of the records shall not refuse such right of inspection to any citizen, unless otherwise provided by state law. See Tenn. Code Ann. § 10-7-503(a)(2)(A). Accordingly, the public records of the Metropolitan Public Defender's Office are presumed to be open for inspection unless otherwise provided by law.

The Metropolitan Public Defender's Office shall timely and efficiently provide access and assistance to persons requesting to view or receive copies of public records. No provisions of this Policy shall be used to hinder access to open public records. However, the integrity and organization of public records, as well as the efficient and safe operation of the Metropolitan Public Defender's Office, shall be protected as provided by current law. Concerns about this Policy should be addressed to the Public Records Request Coordinator for the Metropolitan Public Defender's Office or to the Tennessee Office of Open Records Counsel ("OORC").

This Policy is available for inspection and duplication at the Metropolitan Public Defender's Office. This Policy is posted online at <http://publicdefender.nashville.gov/public-records-policy/>. This Policy shall be reviewed at least annually.
